

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How long has Disability Management Network been around?
2. Why has the name been changed to Triune Health Group?
3. Has Disability Management Network been sold?
4. Has Disability Management Network combined with another company?
5. What can be expected from Triune Health Group?
6. How will this affect my current business with Disability Management Network?

1. DMN was founded on October 7, 1990 and has been steadily growing since. Starting as a Vocational Rehabilitation and Medical Case Management company, we have continued to grow and expand our services to also include Injury Prevention, Employee Wellness and Telephonic Case Management.

[Back to Top]

2. With the expansion of our services, we felt the name Disability Management Network did not properly encompass all that we do. Thus the Name Triune Health Group was formed. Our business has continued to develop to meet the ever changing needs of our customers. This new name, reflects this growth and more clearly reflects our complete range of services and capabilities.

[Back to Top]

3. DMN has not been sold. Absolutely not! Disability Management Network, now Triune Health Group, remains under the same ownership and vision of its founders, Christopher and Mary Anne Yep, who with the help of an extremely talented staff, are leading the way towards a successful future.

[Back to Top]

4. DMN has not merged with another company.

[Back to Top]

5. Triune Health Group continues to look at the future to anticipate the needs of the workforce. By utilizing our unique approach of looking at the total integration and aspect of the human being, we will continue to focus on the overall health and wellness of each individual worker. In short, we help build stronger companies by building healthier individuals.

[Back to Top]

6. All the better! We will continue to provide you with same excellent and quality service that you are used to. We now have even more tools to choose from.

[Back to Top]